OFFICE NOTE.

SUBJECT:— Holding a cattle fair during the car festival of Sri Swayambhuveswaraswamy at Doddaballapur —

LAST REFERENCE.

Letter No. 1427 dated 15th June 1903 from the Dy Commissioner Bangalore district

The Sri Swayambhuveswara Swami temple is a Muzrai Institution situated 1/2 a mile off Doddaballapur at the junction of 6 roads leading to Bangalore, Tumkur, Hindupur Chickballapur, Devanhalli and Nelamangala. An annual car festival is celebrated on Chaitra Suddha Pournami

Upon the recommendation of the Amildar of the Taluk and the Divisional Officer, the Dy Commr of Bangalore reported* that he allowed a cattle fair to be held as the same did not interfere with any other fair and as the place and time was also well suited for the fair.

* No 1122 Dy 16th April 1903.

On an enquiry from this Office, the Dy Commr further reports that the object of holding a cattle fair is to utilize the income for the repairs &c of the temple that this fair does not interfere with that at the Ghate temple

as

as there is full 3 months interval between the two and that no rent is collected on shops temporarily opened on the occasion

Several merchants and other devotees of the temple and the residents of the adjoining villages have requested for the cattle fair being held in view to the income being utilized for the benefit of the ancient temple.

Submitted

The Dy Commr
cannot levy any fee either on the shops or on on on the Cattle, without the previous sanction of Government. This letter does is silent on the rates at which fee is proposed to be levied, nor does it give any other particulars submitted

Ds

Note contd

In reply to the enquiries vide ci above the Dy Comm reports reports that the income derivable is the amount expected to be collected by the levy of 2 annas on each head of cattle gathered at the fair ~~&~~ proposed to be appropriated for the benefit of the temple He states that about 8 or 10 years ago, some hundred cattle gathered during the fair but that no tax was then levied for want of necessary conveniences &c. The D.C. Comm. states that if the holding of the fair is sanctioned as a tentative measure & if it proves successful & beneficial then the Govt may be pleased to sanction the levy of a tax of 2 as on each head of cattle

In his previous communication

Communication of the 16th April 1903, the Dy Commr reported that he had transmitted the holding of the cattle fair. Information as to whether the fair was actually held accordingly, has not been furnished; and as it is reported that no fee is intended to be levied on cattle &c
for the benefit of the temple for some years to come it is doubtful whether any orders are required

Sir,

I have the honor to state that the Car festival of Sri Swayambhesvara Swami temple which is ½ a mile off from Dodballapur is celebrated every year on the 15th Day of Chaitra Sudda. This temple stands near the Junction of 6 roads leading to

to Bangalore, Tumkur, Hindupur Chikka ballapur, Devanahalli and Kolavangala The Divisional officer and the Amildar of Dodballapur recommend for a Cattle fair being started during the annual Jatra. I made local enquiries when at Dodballapur on the 10th Instant and found that it interferes with no other fair and the place and time is also well suited for the fair. As the merchants and the devotees of the temple at Dodballapur eagerly requested sanction for holding the fair, I allowed them to hold the same.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

With reference to your Docket No. 2832 Dated 30th June 1903 Calling for certain Details regarding the holding of a Cattle fair during the Car festival of Sri Swayambhu Swara Swami temple at Dodballapur, I have the honor to state that the income derivable (i.e. the amount expected to be collected by

by the levy of 2a⁵ pr head of cattle from the cattle gathered at the fair as is done in the case of the Sri Ghatisubramanya Swami temple at Dodballapur, audit is this that is proposed to be appropriated for the benefit of the temple. It appears that some hundred cattle or so, gathered 8 or 10 years ago during the Jatra when no tax was actually levied, but for want of proper encouragement and of the creation of necessary conveniences, the fair was discontinued. If the Government are now pleased to sanction the holding of the fair, as a tentative measure for some years, and if it proves successful and promise to be beneficial to the Temple, then the Government may be pleased to sanction the levy of tax at the rate of 2as or 4a on each head of Cattle.

The enclosures received with the above are re-submitted.

Enclosure No. Encl (6)

His letter no. 686 dy 8th Feb 1904 furnishing certain particulars regarding the holding of a Cattle fair during the Car festival of the Sri Swayambhuveswara Swamis temple at Dodballapur.

In reply to the above, I have the honor to state that the Dy Commr reported in his Commr No 1122 dy 16th April 1903, that

MGCPB—11-1-1901—1500

he had permitted the holding of a cattle fair. It has not been reported whether the fair was actually held in accordance with the permission granted.
In the Commr's cited above it is stated that if the holding of the cattle fair is tentatively sanctioned & if it proves successful and beneficial to the temple then the levy of a tax on cattle brought for sale may be sanctioned.
2. It is not understood whether any orders are now required as it is not contemplated to levy any tax at present.
